Dear Judge

I am Susan D. Tan sister of James J. Dine begging you to give my brother one last chance and he promised to us he will not do it anymore.

He is the best brother I ever had, he's my best friend who is always there to help me and our family. He is the youngest, but yet the bread winner and head of our family. My brother is a very good husband and a good father to his 10 year old daughter, Jacey.

I beg for your mercy to please give ^{him} one last chance, please lower his sentence not only for us, but specially for his daughter Jacey who needs his love and care.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,
Susan

Sir:

This is in connection with the predicament of my brother James J. Diño, who is now detained for some misdemeanor punishable by law.

May I offer a bit of information about the suspect. He is a good brother and a good benefactor for his relatives and nearest of kin back here in the Philippines.

His detention was a big blow to us here for not being able to receive any aid from him, most specially to the undersigned being jobless and is suffering a complicated disease for more than 5 years.

In this connection any help that may be extended to him, would redound to the benefits of us all who only rely from his very needed help.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,
CARLOS J. DIÑO
Brother of James
